Give The Gift of Life
September 12th
8:30am-12:30pm

Many of us donate to charities to help those who are sick or in unfortunate circumstances. Donating blood is a free way to help those who are sick and potentially save lives.

There is always a shortage of blood needed for transfusions. Consider donating blood when One Blood's big red bus comes to PUMC on September 12th. It's a wonderful act of compassion, caring, and charity.

Way to Go PUMC

PUMC has donated 225 3 ring 2 pocket plastic folders with 1,575 remaining to reach our 1,800 goal.

Please place your folders in the Gathering Room on the Classroom Ready table.

We will continue to collect until we meet our goal of 1,800. These supplies support disadvantaged students with equal supplies towards academic success.

This is a great opportunity for PUMC to support our local schools.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace
October 23rd
10am-3pm

We will be building bunk beds for local children sleeping on the floor. Watch for more upcoming information For more details email Dawn Edwards at lendyloo@gmail.com.

Mark 8:27-38

²⁷ Jesus and his disciples left Galilee and went up to the villages near Caesarea Philippi. As they were walking along, he asked them, "Who do people say I am?"
²⁸ "Well," they replied, "some say John the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say you are one of the other prophets."
²⁹ Then he asked them, "But who do you say I am?"
 Peter replied, "You are the Messiah. ^[a]"
³⁰ But Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.

Jesus Predicts His Death

³¹ Then Jesus began to tell them that the Son of Man ^[b] must suffer many terrible things and be rejected by the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, but three days later he would rise from the dead. ³² As he talked about this openly with his disciples, Peter took him aside and began to reprimand him for saying such things. ^[c]
³³ Jesus turned around and looked at his disciples, then reprimanded Peter. "Get away from me, Satan!" he said. "You are seeing things merely from a human point of view, not from God's."
³⁴ Then, calling the crowd to join his disciples, he said, "If any of you wants to be my follower, you must give up your own way, take up your cross, and follow me. ³⁵ If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake and for the sake of the Good News, you will save it. ³⁶ And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul? ^[d] ³⁷ Is anything worth more than your soul? ³⁸ If anyone is ashamed of me and my message in these adulterous and sinful days, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he returns in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Due to the recent rise of COVID cases in our area, we are encouraging everyone to wear a mask into the sanctuary during our worship service. The COVID Safety team is monitoring the data in our area and will keep us updated on best practices and protocol.
